

International Experience Canada (IEC): An Overview

This document has been provided as a courtesy by Sony Pictures Imageworks' Canadian Immigration Counsel. The information included reflects that which is in effect at the time and is subject to change by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada. As each individual's situation can be different, we generally recommend that an individual seek personal counsel by an immigration expert to confirm eligibility and/or advise if they need additional authorization/documentation to travel to and/or work in Canada.

International Experience Canada (IEC) provides young individuals the opportunity to travel and work in Canada. IEC is available in countries and territories that have a bilateral youth mobility agreement with Canada. For additional reference, please find attached an Appendix that highlights some of the IEC requirements as well as a factsheet on the program from Immigration, Refugees, and Citizenship Canada ("IRCC").

Please note that as part of your application, you will need to obtain police background checks, an immigration medical exam, provide evidence of savings of $2500 (i.e. bank account statement) and proof of travel insurance. The application also requires an IEC participation fee of CAD$150 and an open work permit fee of CAD $100. Please refer to IRCC's website for a complete explanation of eligibility for the program:

<https://www.cic.gc.ca/english/work/iec/eligibility.asp>

Please ensure to apply under the WORKING HOLIDAY category, which does not require an Employer Compliance Fee or an offer of employment number.

The IEC program is a multistep process, and depending on the popularity of the program for your country, it is based on a lottery. Applicants must submit a profile into a pool of candidates. From the pool of candidates, individuals will be periodically selected and be sent an Invitation To Apply ("ITA"). It is only after receiving an ITA that an individual may submit an application for a work permit to IRCC.

Step 1: COME TO CANADA WIZARD

Please note that the availability of the IEC - Working Holiday program varies based on nationality and residency, and is constantly changing. Please regularly check the information IRCC publishes online relating to invitations for the IEC program to ensure you have the most up to date information: <https://www.cic.gc.ca/english/work/iec/selections.asp>.

The first step to obtaining a work permit under this category is to complete the Come to Canada questionnaire (click "Check your eligibility" at this link: <https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/come-canada-tool.html> which includes the following series of questions:

1. What would you like to do in Canada? – IEC Travel and Work
2. How long are you planning on staying in Canada? – Answer as applicable, generally the answer is temporarily- less than 6 months. Do not input permanently.
3. What is the country of your passport? – Input relevant country
4. What is your current country of residence? – Input relevant country (Do not select Canada even if you are in Canada)
5. Do you have a family member who is a Canadian citizen/permanent resident? – Answer as applicable
6. What is your date of birth? – Answer as applicable
7. Do you have a letter from one of these organizations? – Generally the answer is NO
8. What is your country of permanent residence? – Answer as applicable. For example, if you are an Australian citizen living in Mexico, indicate Australia
9. Do you plan to do a work placement or internship in Canada as part of your studies? – Answer as applicable but if this is part of your studies, please indicate YES
10. Do you have a signed offer letter, contract of employment, or internship agreement with an employer in Canada? – Answer is NO (even though you may have been offered an internship position)
11. Are you registered at a college or university in your country of citizenship? – Answer as applicable but if this is part of your studies, please indicate YES

Following the submission, results indicating eligibility to apply under IEC in the Working Holiday should be issued via a personal reference code, which will be required to create a profile via MyCIC. When making your application, please ensure to choose the WORKING HOLIDAY category.

February 2019

Registration is required for a MyCIC account at the link provided in Step 3 of the Congratulations You're Eligible page: <https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/application/account.html>

Step 2: MyCIC

MyCIC requires that an applicant select a username and password as well as set up a series of security questions for his/her account, in order to retrieve login details. Following this, the applicant will need to input his/her full name, confirm that he/she is over 16 years old, and provide an email address.

Next, the applicant will need to set up another series of security questions which will be required each time he/she logs in. The steps to create an application are as follows:

1. Under "What would you like to do today?" select International Experience Canada.
2. On the next screen, enter your personal reference code that was generated in the Come To Canada questionnaire.
3. Set up profile

Set up of profile:

1. Enter the requested biographical details under "Personal Details"
2. Enter contact information under "Contact Information"
3. Answer YES to the question about wishing to be entered into the pool of candidates for this category under "Application Details"
4. The section for "Work and Education Details" should be pre-populated.

Once all of the above fields have been completed, please select "Continue" and follow the prompts to submit application.

Shortly after submitting an application, the applicant should receive a message confirming that he/she been added to the pool of candidates to receive an ITA. After receiving your ITA, an applicant will then complete an application for a Canadian work permit.
